E.B. Wilson with daughter Nancy [1]

By: Huettner, Alfred F. (Alfred Francis), b. 1884

E.B Wilson came from a musical family, and himself a sensitive musician. While studying in was himself a sensitive musician. While away in Germany, met Robert and Franz Mendelsohn. He described the quartets he played with this group as wonderful "musical debauches." His daughter, Nancy, pictured here, was a talented cellist and later enjoyed a professional career as a musician.
